§ 1. Data controller

The controller is Monika Domagała, trading as DOMAGAŁA MONIKA PHU "DEKRET" Biuro Rachunkowe, ul. Zabłockiego 54/1, 40-750 Katowice, Poland; NIP 6621510290, REGON 240799804. Contact: domagala.biuro@op.pl, tel. +48 508 110 406.

§ 2. Data, purposes and legal bases

The form requires an email address and message; service selection is optional. Submitted details pass through OVHcloud hosting to domagala.biuro@op.pl. No attachments are accepted.

We process information you provide and technical data such as IP addresses and request times. Enquiries, correspondence, security and legal claims rely on Article 6(1)(f) GDPR. Our legitimate interests are communication, website protection and preserving arrangements. Steps requested before entering a contract and its performance rely on Article 6(1)(b); statutory obligations rely on Article 6(1)(c).

Providing data is voluntary, but an email and message are needed to use the form. Do not include unnecessary personal data, identity documents or health data. Accounting and employment documents are transferred separately by an agreed method. An enquiry is not marketing consent.

§ 3. Your rights

Subject to GDPR conditions, you may request access, rectification, erasure, restriction and portability, and object to legitimate-interest processing. Consent may be withdrawn without affecting earlier lawful processing where consent is the legal basis.

Contact the controller to exercise rights. You may complain to the Polish supervisory authority, the President of UODO: uodo.gov.pl. Website code does not profile visitors or make automated decisions with legal or similarly significant effects.

§ 4. Retention

Correspondence is retained for handling the matter and clarifying arrangements, then only as needed for agreed follow-up, statutory obligations or claims until applicable periods expire. Unnecessary data is deleted. Technical log retention depends on provider configuration; ask the controller for details.

§ 5. Recipients and transfers

Hosting is provided by OVHcloud and correspondence is handled through op.pl. Providers may process technical information needed to deliver and secure their services.

IT providers may process data as necessary, and competent authorities may receive it where required by law. Transfers outside the EEA require grounds and safeguards under Chapter V GDPR, such as adequacy decisions or standard contractual clauses. Details and copies of applicable safeguards are available from the controller.

§ 6. Cookies and map

Website code contains no advertising or analytics cookies. The form uses the necessary `dekret_contact` session cookie to validate submissions. Spam protection stores a one-way IP-derived identifier and attempt timestamps, without message contents, for a one-hour limit window. Old files are removed on later requests.

Google Maps loads after you click. Google may then receive IP and browser data and use its own cookies: policies.google.com/privacy/. You can use the address without loading the map. Blocking cookies in your browser may affect form functionality.

§ 7. Scope and updates

This policy covers this website and initial contact. Processing for accounting and payroll services is arranged separately. Website changes require an updated policy. Legal reference: Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR).
